The Truth about Relationships

Relationships will either make us or break us. For this reason we need to be very careful who we allow to get close enough to us to hurt us. The devil will plant people in our lives to distract us from God's plan for our lives. At the same time God will place people in our lives to help & bless us.

There are only four types of people in our lives:

- 1) Those who Add Value to us.
- 2) Those who Subtract Value from us.
- 3) Those who divide us from each other.
- 4) Those who multiply our potential.

Every person in your life falls into one of these four categories. One of the most important decisions for each one of us is to seek & encourage a deeper relationship with those who add value to our lives & help us to multiply our potential while avoiding those who subtract value from us & divide us from each other.

God Bless You,
Pastor Wilson
